

Meeting ID:

925 1090 5964

Password:

552708

Hosted by:
Health Law
Society & OUTLaws

COVID'S DISPARATE IMPACT PANEL

Tuesday
Oct 27
5:00 PM

Discussing COVID's disparate impact on minority communities and potential solutions moving forward

Moderated by Professor David Frankford

David M. Frankford is a specialist in bioethics and health care law, a professor at the Rutgers Institute for Health, Health Care Policy and Aging Research, faculty director at Camden of the Center for State Health Policy and the editor of Behind the Jargon at the Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, having previously served as book review and associate editor.

Christina S. Ho, JD
Prof. of Law, Associate
Dean for Faculty Research, Development and New Programs

Shereef Elnahal, MD, MBA
He serves as the President and CEO of University Hospital in Newark, NJ the principal academic hospital of Rutgers NJ Medical School

Ashley Maddison, JD
Equal Justice Works Fellow (sponsored by Covington & Burling LLP and Merck & Co., Inc.)
Camden Alumni - 2019

Richard Marlink, MD
Director, Rutgers Global Health Institute Henry Rutgers Professor of Global HealthProfessor, Department of Medicine - Division of Medical Oncology, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

Devin English, PhD
Assistant Professor Department of Urban-
Global Public Health